Faculty members of Lutheran universities in North America are invited to propose a twenty minute presentation that explores

- how their discipline contributes to shaping a student’s identity or
- how the identity of their discipline has been shaped by various forces over time and the challenges that presents in a Christian environment.

Three presenters will comprise a panel. A fifteen minute question and answer period will conclude panel presentations. The conference will run three panels concurrently in 75 minute sessions, five sessions total during the conference.
