

GRANDPARENTS, GRANDCHILDREN AND THE COLLEGE SEARCH

West St. Paul, MN

Tuesday, May 3

Augustana Lutheran Church
1400 South Robert Street
West St. Paul, MN 55118

6:30 p.m. Grandparents,
Grandchildren and the College
Search
7 p.m. Financial Aid Seminar
7:30 – 9 p.m. College Fair
Reception and Hors d'Oeuvres

Grandparents have a wealth of knowledge and experience to share with their grandchildren. And, they understand how important it is for their grandchild to select a college or university which offers a unique opportunity to explore and discern his or her place in the world. The college experience is about more than getting a job—it is about finding one's "calling."

Join us as we gather to discuss opportunities to engage in conversation with our grandchildren about the college search. Foster communication between your own children and your grandchildren. Share your personal journeys and insights that only years of experience can uncover.

Sally Daniels, Director of Parent and Family Relations at Augsburg College, will lead a discussion about family involvement in the college search and college experience. Laurie Brill, Director of Marketing with the Lutheran Educational Conference of North America, will share research findings regarding the value of Lutheran higher education. A financial aid seminar and college fair will follow, and grandparents are invited to join us to learn more about our colleges of the church. We welcome your involvement in this very important journey!

For more information on this event,
visit www.lutherancolleges.org/events.

Sponsored in part by  Thrivent Financial
for Lutherans®
Foundation

GRANDPARENTS, GRANDCHILDREN AND THE COLLEGE SEARCH

West St. Paul, MN

Tuesday, May 3

Augustana Lutheran Church
1400 South Robert Street
West St. Paul, MN 55118

6:30 p.m. Grandparents,
Grandchildren and the College
Search
7 p.m. Financial Aid Seminar
7:30 – 9 p.m. College Fair
Reception and Hors d'Oeuvres

Grandparents have a wealth of knowledge and experience to share with their grandchildren. And, they understand how important it is for their grandchild to select a college or university which offers a unique opportunity to explore and discern his or her place in the world. The college experience is about more than getting a job—it is about finding one's "calling."

Join us as we gather to discuss opportunities to engage in conversation with our grandchildren about the college search. Foster communication between your own children and your grandchildren. Share your personal journeys and insights that only years of experience can uncover.

Sally Daniels, Director of Parent and Family Relations at Augsburg College, will lead a discussion about family involvement in the college search and college experience. Laurie Brill, Director of Marketing with the Lutheran Educational Conference of North America, will share research findings regarding the value of Lutheran higher education. A financial aid seminar and college fair will follow, and grandparents are invited to join us to learn more about our colleges of the church. We welcome your involvement in this very important journey!

For more information on this event,
visit www.lutherancolleges.org/events.

Sponsored in part by  Thrivent Financial
for Lutherans®
Foundation